UNCEASING MISERY
Some Alma Kidney Sufferers Get Little Rest or Comfort.

There is little sleep, little rest, little peace for many a sufferer from kidney trouble. Life is one continual round of pain. You can't rest at night when there's kidney backache. You suffer twinges and "stabs" of pain, annoying urinary disorders, lameness and nervousness. You can't be comfortable at work with darting pains and hindering dizzy spells. Neglect these ailments and serious troubles may follow. Begin using Doan's Kidney Pills at the first sign of disorder. Thousands have testified to their merit. Alma readers will find convincing proof in the following testimony:

Mrs. George Wingett, St. John St., Ithaca, Mich., says: "I was bothered by backache and a pain across my kidneys. Sometimes the attacks were so bad, I couldn't lie still at night. Doan's Kidney Pills were recommended to me and I used them. They soon stopped the pains."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Wingett had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.—adv. 57

Two applications relieved him. A lady with weak, inflamed eyes was greatly helped by ONE bottle. We guarantee a small bottle of Lavoptik to help ANY CASE weak, strained or inflamed eyes. W. Alex. Brunner, druggist.—adv. 6.

THE THEATRE

Genesta Theatre

Madge Evans had a tough time with a pillow in the new World Picture, "The Love Net." She gets all the feathers out of the pillow and then, when her room is covered with them and they are in every nook and corner, she is told to pick each feather up and put it carefully back into the pillow case again.

This is but one of the many laughable, interesting, unusual touches in this decidedly pleasing and entertaining production. You will enjoy this photoplay when you see it on Friday at the Genesta Theater, with Madge Evans as the star and Jack Drumier featured.

"The Love Net" was written by Bertha A. Backus, and the scenario was penned by Clara S. Branger. In this attraction these two successful writers have turned out one of the very best picture plays in which Madge Evans has ever been seen.
